

August 29, 1926; 97 years ago

"Artemio Franchi", Florence

Head Coach

Vincenzo Italiano

ACF Fiorentina, commonly known as Fiorentina, is a professional football club based in Florence, Italy. The club was founded in 1926 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Artemio Franchi. Fiorentina's colors are purple and white.

Fiorentina has a history of success in Italian football, with several Serie A titles and Coppa Italia triumphs to their name. The club also reached the final of the Champions League in 1957, showcasing their quality on the European stage.

Gabriel Batistuta

Batistuta, an Argentine striker, is widely regarded as one of Fiorentina's greatest players. Known for his goal-scoring exploits and fierce competitiveness, Batistuta remains an iconic figure in the club's history.

Francesco Toldo

Toldo, an accomplished goalkeeper, made a lasting impact at Fiorentina with his exceptional shot-stopping abilities and leadership on the field. He is remembered for his contributions to the team's success during his time at the club.

Stefano Borgonovo

Borgonovo, a talented forward, endeared himself to Fiorentina fans with his skill and dedication on the pitch. Despite his battle with ALS later in life, Borgonovo remains a beloved figure at the club.