

September 7, 1893; 130 years ago

Luigi Ferraris, Genoa

Head Coach

Alberto Gilardino

Genoa Cricket and Football Club, commonly known as Genoa, is a professional football club based in Genoa, Liguria, Italy. The club was founded in 1893, making it one of the oldest football clubs in Italy. Genoa plays its home matches at the Stadio Luigi Ferraris and wears red and blue stripes.

Genoa has a rich history in Italian football, having won multiple Serie A championships and Coppa Italia titles over the years. The club has a passionate fanbase and a strong tradition of producing talented players and competing at the highest levels of Italian football.

Giuseppe Signori

Signori, a prolific striker, played for Genoa early in his career and later went on to achieve great success at other clubs. He is remembered for his goal-scoring exploits and skill on the field, earning him recognition as a legendary Italian forward.

Alessandro Matri

Matri, a talented forward, had stints at Genoa during his career and made valuable contributions to the team's success. Known for his goal-scoring ability and work rate, Matri remains respected among Genoa fans.

Francesco Graziani

Graziani, a former striker, enjoyed a successful spell at Genoa, where he showcased his scoring prowess and played a key role in the team's achievements. He is regarded as a legendary figure in the club's history for his performances on the pitch.