

December 3, 1906; 117 years ago

Grande Torino, Turin

Head Coach

Иван Юрич

Torino Football Club, commonly known as Torino, is a professional football club based in Turin, Italy. The club was founded in 1906 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Olimpico Grande Torino. Torino's colors are maroon and white, and they have a strong rivalry with Juventus, another prominent club in Turin.

Torino has a rich history in Italian football, with seven Serie A championships and five Coppa Italia titles to their name. The club experienced a period of dominance in the 1940s, winning several league titles and establishing themselves as one of the top clubs in Italy.

Gigi Meroni

Meroni was a talented winger known for his flair and skill on the ball. Tragically, his career was cut short when he died in a car accident at the age of 24. He is remembered as a beloved figure in Torino's history.

Valentino Mazzola

Mazzola was a legendary player for Torino during the 1940s, leading the club to multiple Serie A titles. He was known for his leadership on the field and exceptional goal-scoring ability, making him a revered figure among Torino fans.

Joe Bassetto

Bassetto, a versatile defender, played a key role in Torino's success during his time at the club. He was known for his consistency and defensive prowess, earning admiration from supporters.