

1896; 128 years ago

Stadio Friuli, Udine

Head Coach

Gabriele Cioffi

Udinese Calcio is a professional football club based in Udine, Friuli-Venezia Giulia, Italy. The club was founded in 1896 and plays its home matches at the Dacia Arena. Udinese's colors are black and white, and they have a strong tradition of nurturing young talent and competing in Serie A.

Udinese has had periods of success in Serie A, with strong finishes in the league standings and European qualifications. The club has a reputation for smart recruitment and innovative tactics that have helped them punch above their weight in Italian football.

Antonio Di Natale

Di Natale is one of Udinese's most iconic players, known for his goal-scoring prowess and loyalty to the club. He spent most of his career at Udinese, becoming their all-time leading scorer and a beloved figure among the fans.

Oliver Bierhoff

Bierhoff, a former German international striker, had a successful spell at Udinese early in his career. He showcased his goal-scoring abilities and earned admiration for his performances on the field, leaving a lasting impact on the club during his time there.

Alexis Sanchez

Sanchez, a versatile forward from Chile, played for Udinese before moving on to bigger clubs in Europe. He impressed with his skill and work rate at Udinese, attracting attention from top teams with his performances in Serie A.