

October 3, 1909; 114 years ago

Renato Dal-Ara, Bologna

Head Coach

Tiago Motta

Bologna Football Club 1909, commonly known as Bologna, is one of the oldest football clubs in Italy, founded in 1909. The club is based in Bologna, a city in northern Italy, and plays its home matches at the Stadio Renato Dall'Ara. Bologna's traditional colors are red and blue.

Bologna has a rich history in Italian football, having won multiple Serie A titles during its early years in the 1920s and 1930s. The club has also achieved success in the Coppa Italia and other domestic competitions. While they have not been as prominent in recent years, Bologna remains a respected club in Italian football history.

Giuseppe Della Valle

Della Valle is considered a legend at Bologna, having represented the club during the successful era of the 1920s and 1930s. He was a prolific goalscorer and a key player in Bologna's Serie A triumphs.

Angelo Schiavio

Schiavio was a prominent figure in Bologna's history, known for his goal-scoring prowess and his contributions to the club's success in the early years. He was also a key player for the Italian national team, winning the World Cup in 1934.

Gianluca Pagliuca

Pagliuca, a goalkeeper, had a successful stint at Bologna, earning recognition for his performances between the posts. He is regarded as one of the top goalkeepers in Bologna's history.