

December 16, 1899; 124 years ago

"San Siro", Milan

Head Coach

Stefano Pioli

AC Milan, officially known as Associazione Calcio Milan, was founded in 1899 and is based in Milan, Italy. The club's colors are red and black, and they play their home matches at the San Siro stadium. AC Milan is one of the most successful clubs in Italian and European football history.

AC Milan has a storied history of success, winning numerous Serie A titles, Coppa Italia trophies, and Champions League titles. The club's successful periods have been marked by legendary players and managers who have propelled AC Milan to greatness on both domestic and international stages.

Paolo Maldini

Maldini is a true AC Milan icon, known for his loyalty, leadership, and exceptional defensive prowess. The legendary defender spent his entire career at the club, winning multiple Serie A titles and Champions League trophies.

Franco Baresi

Baresi is another defensive stalwart who left an indelible mark on AC Milan. Known for his elegance, intelligence, and astute reading of the game, Baresi is considered one of the greatest defenders in football history.

Marco van Basten

Van Basten, a Dutch football legend, enjoyed tremendous success at AC Milan during his playing career. The talented striker won numerous individual awards and helped lead AC Milan to Serie A and European triumphs, showcasing his extraordinary goal-scoring abilities.