

1919; 105 years ago

"Areca", Salerno

Head Coach

Fabio Liverani

Salernitana Calcio 1919 is a professional football club based in Salerno, Campania, Italy. The club was founded in 1919 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Arechi.

Salernitana's colors are granata (maroon) and white, and they have a passionate fanbase that supports the team.

Salernitana has a history of fluctuating between Serie A and Serie B, with periods of success and challenges. The club has faced financial difficulties at times but has shown resilience in their pursuit of success and stability in Italian football.

Claudio Bellucci

Bellucci is a former player who is fondly remembered at Salernitana for his goal-scoring exploits during his time at the club. The forward left a lasting impact with his contributions on the field and remains a respected figure among Salernitana supporters.

Igor Budan

Budan is another player who has a special place in the hearts of Salernitana fans for his performances in the granata colors. The Croatian striker showcased his skill and determination while representing the club and earned admiration for his dedication to the team.