

August 11, 1926; 97 years ago

Diego Armando Maradona, Naples

Head Coach

Francesco Colzona

Società Sportiva Calcio Napoli, commonly known as Napoli, is a professional football club based in Naples, Italy. The club was founded in 1926 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Diego Armando Maradona, named after the legendary player Diego Maradona. Napoli's colors are sky blue and white.

Napoli has a rich history in Italian football, with notable achievements including multiple Serie A titles and Coppa Italia victories. The club experienced a golden era in the late 1980s and early 1990s under the leadership of Diego Maradona, winning prestigious domestic and international trophies.

Diego Maradona

Maradona is arguably the most iconic figure in Napoli's history. The Argentine forward dazzled fans with his skill and led Napoli to their first Serie A titles in 1987 and 1990. He is revered as a legend not only at Napoli but in the football world as a whole.

Dries Mertens

Mertens, a Belgian forward, has made a significant impact at Napoli in recent years. Known for his goal-scoring ability and creative playmaking, Mertens has become a fan favorite and a key player for the club.

Ciro Ferrara

Ferrara, a former defender, is esteemed at Napoli for his contributions to the team's success during his playing days. He was known for his leadership on the field and defensive prowess, earning admiration from supporters.