

1920; 104 years ago

Mapei, Reggio Emilia

Head Coach

Davide Ballardini

Sassuolo Calcio is a professional football club based in Sassuolo, Emilia-Romagna, Italy. The club was founded in 1920 and plays its home matches at the Mapei Stadium - Città del Tricolore. Sassuolo's colors are black and green, and they have made a remarkable rise through the Italian football pyramid in recent years.

Sassuolo's rise to Serie A has been one of the standout stories in Italian football. The club earned promotions from the lower divisions and established itself as a competitive team in Serie A. Sassuolo has also qualified for European competitions, showcasing their progress and ambition.

Domenico Berardi

Berardi is considered a legend at Sassuolo due to his longstanding commitment to the club and his impressive performances on the pitch. The talented forward has been a key player for Sassuolo and has attracted attention from top clubs with his goal-scoring prowess.

Francesco Magnanelli

Magnanelli is another player who is highly regarded at Sassuolo for his loyalty and leadership on the field. The veteran midfielder has been instrumental in guiding the team through its successful campaigns and has been a reliable figure in the squad.