AC Monza, commonly known as Monza, is a professional football club based in Monza, Lombardy, Italy. The club was founded in 1912 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Brianteo. Monza's colors are red and white.

Monza has a relatively modest history in Italian football compared to some of the more established clubs. The team has competed in various divisions of Italian football and has shown ambition in recent years to climb the ranks and compete at higher levels.

While Monza may not have as many historical legends as some of the more renowned Italian clubs, the team has seen talented players come through its ranks who have made significant contributions to the club's history.
