

1906; 118 years ago

Benito Stirpe, Frosinone

Head Coach

Eusebio Di Francesco

Frosinone Calcio is a professional football club based in Frosinone, Lazio, Italy. The club was founded in 1912 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Benito Stirpe. Frosinone's colors are yellow and blue, and they have a passionate fanbase that supports the team through thick and thin.

Frosinone has experienced periods of success in Italian football, earning promotions to Serie A and competing at the highest level of Italian football. The club's resilience and determination have been key traits in their journey through the football pyramid.

While Frosinone may not have as many widely recognized legends as some of the bigger clubs, the team has seen talented players who have made important contributions to the club's history and endeared themselves to the fans.