

November 1, 1897; 126 years ago

Allianz Stadium, Turin

Head Coach

Massimiliano Allegri

Juventus Football Club, commonly referred to as Juventus or Juve, was founded in 1897 and is based in Turin, Italy. The club's colors are black and white, and they play their home matches at the Allianz Stadium. Juventus is one of the most successful clubs in Italian football history.

Juventus holds the record for the most Serie A titles won in Italy, establishing themselves as a dominant force in domestic football. The club has also had success in European competitions, winning multiple Champions League titles. Juventus consistently competes at the highest level both domestically and internationally.

Alessandro Del Piero

Del Piero is considered a Juventus legend, having spent the majority of his career at the club. The talented forward captained Juventus and won numerous Serie A titles and played a pivotal role in the club's success.

Gianluigi Buffon

Buffon, one of the greatest goalkeepers of all time, has been synonymous with Juventus for many years. He has broken records, won titles, and solidified his status as a club icon with his exceptional performances.

Michel Platini

Platini, a French football legend, enjoyed great success at Juventus during his playing career. He played a key role in Juventus' triumphs in Serie A and in European competitions, leaving a lasting legacy at the club.