

1920; 104 years ago

Carlo Castellani, Empoli

Head Coach

Paolo Zanetti

Empoli Football Club is a professional football club based in Empoli, Tuscany, Italy. The club was founded in 1920 and plays its home matches at the Stadio Carlo Castellani. Empoli's colors are blue and white, and they have a strong presence in Italian football, often competing in Serie A and Serie B.

Empoli has had periods of success in Italian football, with promotions and solid campaigns in Serie A. The club has a reputation for developing young talent and playing an attractive style of football that has garnered admiration from fans and pundits.

Empoli has had players who have made significant contributions to the club's history and success on the pitch. While these players may not be as widely recognized as some of the superstars at bigger clubs, their impact on Empoli's journey is deeply appreciated by the fans.